ADDENDUM #2 –

Questions:

Responses are noted in red

1. I do not see the actual color required for the cab and tank all I see is tank to match cab but under cab no actual color. I have seen the current truck and it looks to be a forest or dark green. If the bid requires a specific color, you might want to give a paint code unless white cab and white tank.
We didn't choose a color because we didn't want to eliminate any truck chassis that may be on the lot or on order. Want the tank and truck to match.
2. Listed under the truck warranty you list engine, transmission and cooling extended warranty I might suggest you spell out after-treatment extended warranty.
As for the after-treatment system warranty I didn't know that it wasn't part of the engine. It would be a good idea to have it included.
