He is requesting the use of the selectmen's meeting room and channel 22 on February 20 at 7PM for candidates night. The board agrees it has been done for years and the assistant moderator would run the show.

Audio Books - now available on the website. They can be read on your computer or downloaded to an MP3 player. It is free to residents but the library pays a small subscription fee.

Paula Wood commented on the positive way the library is moving forward and the staff.

Ann Robinson left the meeting at 10:45AM.

Mr. McCann said he has received calls regarding congressional representatives being able to put an article in the town report. He does not feel the town report should be used for political campaigning. Mrs. Stockbridge commented that Maggie Hassan put an article in last year and she is our senator and representative of Seabrook so there is a connection. She did not feel it was inappropriate.

Asa Knowles commented should have the representatives and senators name in the book with telephone numbers. Selectmen will look into.

Board agrees no letters to be in report by congressional representatives.
